PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

MOTION TO INTERVENE OF ENVIRONMENT NORTHEAST

Environment Northeast (ENE), by its attorney, hereby moves under Rule 1.13 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission ("Rules" and "Commission" respectively) to intervene in the above-captioned proceeding and, in support of its motion, states as follows:

1. ENE is a non-profit organization which researches and addresses environmental problems that threaten regional ecosystems, human health and the management of natural resources. ENE is a member of the Energy Conservation Management Board which reviews the planning and implementation of gas and electric utility energy efficiency programs for the State of Connecticut. ENE has been active in Rhode Island and other New England states in researching and promoting energy efficiency and other demand side measures to mitigate environmental harm and reduce costs for energy consumers.
2. ENE's interests are directly affected by the issues in this proceeding and cannot be adequately represented by any other party.
3. ENE's participation in this proceeding is in the public interest.
4. Accordingly, ENE's intervention is necessary and appropriate under Rule 1.13 of the Rules.

Service of any correspondence or pleadings in connection with these matters should be directed to:
