MOTION OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND THE GEORGE WILEY CENTER FOR ONE WEEK EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE WRITTEN COMMENTS

The Attorney General and the George Wiley Center, by their attorneys, move that the Public Utilities Commission extend for one week, until November 5, 2007, the time for filing written comments in this docket. Undersigned counsel are working on competing written materials, including a brief due tomorrow, October 26, 2007, in the First Circuit Court of Appeals and materials for other proceedings scheduled next week.

Counsel understands Steve Jennings of the AARP is also interested in such an extension. Laura Olton has informed the undersigned that National Grid does not object to such an extension. Counsel has yet to hear from Leo Wold on behalf of the Division.

WHEREFORE, the Attorney General and the George Wiley Center ask that their motion be granted.
