Re: Jamestown & Newport Ferry – Revised 2011 Tariff

Dear Mr. Mercer:

Enclosed please find a revised proposed Tariff for the 2011 season for the operation of the Jamestown and Newport Ferry. Due to rising costs, Conanicut Marine Services Inc finds it necessary to increase the rates from 2010. Please note, however, that they now have a special rate for Seniors and Children.

Otherwise everything remains the same as was originally indicated in our application for this 2011 season.

Please let us know if you require anything in addition in order to grant approval for this 2011 tariff increase.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Sonya Morton-Ranney

3 Fort Adams

Departing from the water taxi dock directly opposite the Visitor's Center

One of the largest seacoast fortifications built in the US, Fort Adams provides a visual record of military history for the 1820s to the end of WWII. The walls of the fort, the "listening tunnels," and panoramic views of Narragansett Bay combine to make this an interesting and educational stop. Guided tours are available daily on the hour from 10 am to 4 pm beginning in late May. Admission is $10 adults, kids 5 and under admitted free. ($1 off with ferry ticket).

For more information: 401.841.0707 or www.fortadams.org.

Museum of Yachting: The Museum of Yachting celebrates the history of yachting through its displays and paintings, photos, boating paraphernalia, and various vessels. Learn about the history of the America's Cup races and much more. Open daily, 10 am - 5 pm, May through October. Admission is $5 adults, $4 seniors and children ($1 off with ferry ticket).

For more information: 401.847.1918 or www.moy.org.

Sail Newport: Rhode Island's Public Sailing Center, Sail Newport provides easy and affordable access to sailing. They have a fleet of 22 sailboats and sit-on-top kayaks available for rent, and offer lessons for the novice to the advanced adult sailor.
