MOTION OF THE NARRAGANSETT ELECTRIC COMPANY,
D/B/A NATIONAL GRID
FOR PROTECTIVE TREATMENT OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Now comes The Narragansett Electric Company, d/b/a National Grid (“Company”) and hereby requests that the Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission (“Commission”) grant protection from public disclosure of certain confidential, competitively sensitive, and proprietary information submitted in this proceeding, as permitted by Commission Rule 1.2(g) and R.I.G.L. § 38-2-2(5)(i)(B).

I. BACKGROUND

On July 20, 2012, the Company filed with the Commission its supplemental response to Division 5-16-ELEC issued by the Rhode Island Division of Public Utilities and Carriers (“Division”) in the above-referenced proceeding. In Division 5-16-ELEC, the Division requests the Company provide the 2007-2011, account-level, charge-off information for the electric distribution business in electronic data format shown in Attachment 5-16E. As part of its supplemental response to Division 5-16-ELEC, the Company is providing as Attachments DIV 5-16-2-ELEC (Supp.) through DIV 5-16-4-

ELEC (Supp.) the account-level data in electronic data format. These attachments contain customer-specific information such as:

- customer names listed in columns G and H;
- customer numbers listed in column I;
- account numbers listed in column J;
- social security numbers listed in column K;
- tax identification numbers listed in column L;
- electric meter equipment numbers listed in column V; and
- street addresses listed in column Y.

As an additional measure, the Company has replaced certain customer-specific information (i.e., customer numbers, customer account numbers, social security numbers and tax identification numbers) by altering data and headings in the attachments for purposes of confidentiality. Customer-specific information is proprietary to the customer, and only that customer has the right to indicate whether his or her information should be available to anyone else (i.e., a competitive supplier or marketer) or to the public in general. Therefore, the Company seeks protection for the above-referenced information listed in columns G through L, V and Y in Attachments DIV 5-16-2-ELEC (Supp.) through DIV 5-16-4-ELEC (Supp.).

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 1.2(g) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure provides that access to public records shall be granted in accordance with the Access to Public Records Act ("APRA"), R.I.G.L. §38-2-1, et seq. Under APRA, all documents and materials submitted in connection with the transaction of official business by an agency is deemed to be a “public record,” unless the information contained in such documents and materials falls within one of the exceptions specifically identified in R.I.G.L. §38-2-2(5)(i). Therefore, to the extent that information provided to the Commission falls within one of the designated exceptions to the public records law, the Commission has the authority under the terms of APRA to deem such information to be confidential and to protect that information from public disclosure.

In that regard, R.I.G.L. §38-2-2(5)(i)(B) provides that the following records shall not be deemed public:

Trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person, firm, or corporation which is of a privileged or confidential nature

The Rhode Island Supreme Court has held that the determination as to whether this exemption applies requires the application of a two-pronged test set forth in Providence Journal Company v. Convention Center Authority, 774 A.2d 40 (R.I. 2001). The first prong of the test assesses whether the information was provided voluntarily to the governmental agency. Providence Journal, 774 A.2d at 47. If the answer to the first question is affirmative, then the question becomes whether the information is “of a kind that would customarily not be released to the public by the person from whom it was obtained.” Id.

In addition, the Court has held that the agencies making determinations as to the disclosure of information under APRA may apply the balancing test established by the Court in Providence Journal v. Kane, 577 A.2d 661 (R.I. 1990). Under this balancing test, the Commission may protect information from public disclosure if the benefit of such protection outweighs the public interest in disclosure of information pending before regulatory agencies.

III. BASIS FOR CONFIDENTIALITY

Attachments DIV 5-16-2-ELEC (Supp.) through DIV 5-16-4-ELEC (Supp.) provide detailed information including confidential customer-specific information such as names, addresses, customer numbers, account numbers, social security numbers, tax identification numbers and electric meter numbers that are treated as confidential within the Company and are not disseminated outside the Company. Moreover, the Commission has recognized each customer's right to control dissemination of his or her account information, address and other personal information. Such customer-specific information is proprietary to the customer and only the customer has the right to indicate whether such information should be available in the public domain.

Consistent with this precedent, the Company seeks protection for certain customer-specific information that is confidential, commercially sensitive, and proprietary from public disclosure. This material, therefore, must remain confidential to preserve the Company's customers' privacy interests. Accordingly, in this case the need to ensure that the confidentiality of this commercially sensitive information outweighs any public interest in disclosure of the information. The Company has provided all other portions of the Attachments DIV 5-16-2-ELEC (Supp.) through DIV 5-16-4-ELEC (Supp.) as a public document with altered data and headings related to customer-specific information.

IV. CONCLUSION

In light of the foregoing, the Company respectfully requests that the Commission grant its Motion for Protective Treatment as stated herein.

Respectfully submitted,

THE NARRAGANSETT ELECTRIC
