BASKETBALL Celtics add a veteran

A person familiar with the deal tells The Associated Press that veteran big man Blake Griffin has agreed to a contract with the Boston Celtics. The person confirmed the move on the condiIII. He is expected to miss 8 to 12 weeks after knee surgery. Seven-footer Luke Kornet sprained his ankle shortly after the start of training camp this week. Griffin was the 2009 No. 1 overall draft pick. Mansell carded five birdies and a single bogey to post the lowest round of the day and climb to 10under par as strong winds and heavy rain made life difficult for the players at all three host courses. Swede Alex Noren was alone in second place at 8-un-der following his 69 at Kingsbarns, and Dane Niklas NorgaardMoller and Frenchman Antoine Rozner were tied for third after 74s at St. Andrews and Carnoustie respectively. Home favorite Robert MacIntyre was another shot

■ Charley Hull has been spending more time with her putting. It appears to have paid off in The Ascendant LPGA. The 26-year-old from England made eight birdies in her round of 64. That gives her a two-shot lead over Atthaya Thitikul and Janet Lin going into the weekend. A win this week in Texas by Thitikul would take her to No. 1 in the world. She had a 67 in the second round
