

Rhode Island Power Sector Transformation

Technical Meeting on Distribution System Planning

May 26, 2017, 9:30 am – 12 noon

89 Jefferson Boulevard, Hearing Room A

FINAL AGENDA

- 9:30-9:45 Introduction and Welcome
What is the purpose and value of DSP to the 21st century utility?
- Danny Musher, Chief of Program Development, Rhode Island Office of Energy Resources
- 9:45-11:15 Panel: National Perspectives on Distribution System Planning
Share learnings from other leading jurisdictions on cutting-edge DSP approaches and practices.
- Moderators:
Rudy Stegemoeller, Regulatory Assistance Project
Doug Scott, Great Plains Institute
- Panelists:
David Erickson, DNV GL
Josh Bode, Nexant
Luis Ortiz, Anbaric
Rob Sheridan, National Grid
- 11:15-11:45 General moderated discussion and questions from assembled stakeholders
- 11:45-12:00 Synopsis and close