

Rhode Island Power Sector Transformation

Technical Meeting on Grid Connectivity & Functionality “Whose Box Is It Anyway?": Opportunities and Challenges for Advanced Meters and Line Automation

June 15, 2017, 9:30 am-12:30 pm
89 Jefferson Boulevard, Hearing Room A

FINAL AGENDA

- 9:30-9:45 Introduction and Welcome
Goals for this meeting and work group process
- Macky McCleary, Administrator, Rhode Island Division of Public Utilities and Carriers
- 9:45-11:00 Panel One: Advanced meters, in-home products: what is possible? – big data, big savings?
- Moderators:
David Littell, Regulatory Assistance Project
Doug Scott, Great Plains Institute
- Panelists:
Bruce Husta, Itron
Matt Davey, Silver Spring
Forest Small, Black and Veatch
Tom Classen, Verizon
- 11:00-12:00 Panel Two: Line Automation Opportunities – a glimpse of the future
- Panelists:
Jerry Yakel, S and C
John McDonald, GE
Taylor Spalt, UtiliData
- 12:00-12:25 National Grid Response to Panels
Chris Kelly, National Grid
- 12:25-12:30 Synopsis and close: Macky McCleary